MORALITY OF THE TURF

Author Yates' Equine Hero Tells a Story of Absorbing Interest.

Denouncers of Racing Ignorant and Unthinking—Health and Recreation Surround Sport.

In the course of a nice story, "The Autobiography of a Race Horse," now running serially in the Saturday Evening Post, its author, L. B. Yates, writes his equine hero's impression of turf morality in a true, sensible and entertaining way, as follows:

I might say here that a horse loves to be talked to, and most horses will be gentle so long as their riders sing to them. The reason of this is that we have great confidence in the human voice. Instinct tells us that as long as a man sings he is not afraid of anything; so there is no cause for us to worry. It is the same way with cattle on the range. The cowboys always sing to them.

Before I tell you about our first real adventure in the racing world I should like to say something in a general way about the turf, because I don't think any sport or pastime has been more misunderstood. I speak particularly about criticism upon the way in which it is conducted. This has been the great stumbling block ever since racing was patronized in this country.

I regret to say that a great many unthinking people are loud in their denunciation of racing. They are too prone to allege that everything about the race track is crooked and dishonest. There never was a greater mistake.

Now, I don't mean to say that in years gone by, and even yet, you will not find people who resort to questionable practices in the racing of horses. But I always contend that from its very nature it is conducted in a general way as honestly as any other branch of sport which depends on the public for its existence.

In the first place, you must consider the personnel of the men who dominate the activities of the best tracks. They are invariably men of unquestioned reputation and probity. Racing receives many of its black eyes from the fact that during certain periods some of the tracks were operated by professional gamblers.

When I say this I do not mean to say that a professional gambler is incapable of racing on the square, because I have met many such men in my travels who had as much sentiment about their horses and as much solicitude for the welfare of the turf as any man, living or dead. On the turf they raced like gentlemen.

It is also safe to assert that ninety-nine per cent of the jockeys ride to win. It is ridiculous and criminal for unthinking persons to brand these game little fellows, in a general way, as dishonest. Many of them are either striving for a reputation or are endeavoring to sustain one. Big rewards and rich emoluments are always waiting for the successful rider. Only a few weeks ago the estate of a successful jockey was appraised by the surrogate's court as being worth half a million dollars.

BOYISH MISTAKES UNDER GREAT STRAIN.

It is natural that these boys should make mistakes; but usually they are those of the head and muscles rather than of the heart. And if you ever rode a race yourself you would know how easy it is to lose a race by having your horse swerve a couple of inches to the right or to the left, as the case may be, or the hundred and one other things that can happen to a horse and his rider during the running.

Some of our riders, of course, have arrived at the years of discretion, but a great many of them are little boys in their early teens. They often go out to ride with their heads full of instructions about what positions they are to maintain at various stages of the race. Very frequently the actual conditions of the running prevent them from carrying out their instructions. It is so easy for a trainer to alibi on the boy.

I don't mean to say that all trainers do this, but often, when a man is handling the horses of some rich owner who bets extensively, he is very apt to pass his lack of knowledge of the horse or his mistakes in judgment on to his rider; and some rich owners are very bad losers. I have found that the man of moderate means—who really knows horses, and who, because of a limited pocketbook, races a small stable—is by far the best man to uphold the honor and traditions of the turf.

When I say this I do not refer to wealthy owners who have owned and raced for many years, and whose fathers and grandfathers perhaps raced before them. I speak of a certain class of people who made their money overnight, purchased a stable haphazard, and—because they didn't win every race in which their horses were entered—left the turf as suddenly as they came on, hurling meledictions at everyone connected with it.

The nubbin of the whole thing is that in order to write about or judge the activities of the turf intelligently one must have some intimate knowledge of horses, their riders and trainers. It is best to eliminate the personal equation and judge them from the same standpoint and with the same reservations and allowances you would accord to anything else in the ordinary trend of affairs. Above all, one must not allow his opinion to be swayed or his natural perception blinded by the fact that he has bet on a loser.

HUMAN AVERAGE OF EVIL PRACTICE.

I don't want anyone to understand that I hold any brief for the evil practices on the turf now or at any other time, because so long as men race horses or court women or exchange merchandise for money there will always be a certain percentage of those who do not want to play the game according to rules. You can meet these individuals inside a church just as readily as you can meet them on the quarter stretch of the race track. Old human nature has never changed in its integral parts as it has rattled down through ages.

Civilization polishes, but never yet has it seeped in so deep that it penetrated the true inwardness of any man or woman. You can apply the same rule to animals. If a race horse is born a weak-hearted coward that will curl up and quit whenever called upon for a supreme effort, no amount of training will educate that out of him, and he will always fail you at the critical moment.

There is an average of eight horses in every race. And, whether the dash be long or short, so many things can happen in the course of the running that

PROBABILITIES POINT TO A SMALL FIELD NUMERICALLY FOR THE THIRTIETH RUNNING OF THE

Futurity Stakes Next Saturday

NEW YORK, N. Y., September 10.—Probably one of the smallest fields in the history of the Futurity will face the starter next Saturday for this great feature, worth more than $25,000 to the winner, the exact sum depending upon the number of starters that go to the post. As the time approaches one can not sift out more than a half dozen of the eligibles that will dare face each other. This is a a small field indeed, considering the fact that for years it has boasted of an almost uncommandable group of contestants; so much so in past years that the result has been a scramble in some instances, though it has been rare the best horse has been defeated. Really good horses are usually returned the winners. This year's event is generally conceded to be between two horses. Some think there is but one—Man o' War. Not until recently has a worthy contender loomed into the picture, when Dominique stepped into the limelight upon more than one occasion. He has certainly earned a right to consideration and will no doubt prove so far at least a part of the race, and at the difference in weight for sucha grueling race might, and the word MIGHT is used advisably, drive Man o' War into the hardest battle he has ever had. According to the probable weights to be carried Man o' War is billed to have 130 pounds and Dominique 122. There is some dispute concerning Man o' War's impost, and it may be he will only have to carry 127 pounds, as a clause in the conditions declares that three pounds' allowance may be claimed if the forebears of an entry has not produced a winner prior to 1917. This privilege has been claimed for Man o' War on the part of the dam Mahubah, as Man o' War's sire, Fair Play, has begotten many winners. As near as can be predicted at this moment the remaining starters outside of the two stars might include Cleopatra and Star Court, the latter not entirely probable, from the Coe stable; Upset, John P. Grier or Arethusa from the group owned by Mr. H. P. Whitney. Paul Jones, which is being prepared to carry the colors of Captain Ral Parr, and possibly, though not probably, Donnacona, a fine looking colt that Max Hirsch has been sending along with the intention of his carrying the Loft colors if he is considered in fit condition to be a contender.

It is a sparse field to race for such an event and such a goodly sum of money, but the achievements of both Man o' War and Dominique have been so pronounced that few owners have the nerve to face an entrance fee of more than $300 to send a candidate to the post.

Some of the real sportsmen will do it for no other reason than to have a representative in the race. But if only three go to the post—Man o' War, Dominique and Cleopatra—it will be one of the events of the season. Many things can happen in a horse race, however, and as usual some owner will send a horse to the post in the hope that the goddess of fortune will favor. Such things have occurred. There have been surprises in the Futurity. L'Alouette won when she was looked upon as outclassed. So was the underrated Cinderella of the Thompson stable in 1897. The year before Ogden won. So little was thought of his chances that any odds were offered against him and his unfashionable rider, Tuberville. Then there was Trojan's victory, which was totally unexpected. But he was suited by the heavy going that prevailed at Saratoga in the year 1914. These instances are mentioned showing that all sorts of things can happen, but they are infrequent. Yet as some owners declare: "We have hopes."

All the owners that will be represented can be termed easterners. Kentucky has a representative in Miss Jemima, but she has trained off her spring form and Charles Rowe has decided it would be a waste of money to pay her starting fee. Nearly every owner and breeder of prominence had nominations, but as usual out of the 898 entries received hardly one per cent will step into the sunlight of the starting post and straight ground of contention.

Fator being set down by starter Cassidy for the meeting will deprive S. C. Hildreth, his employer, of his services in the Futurity. He was slated to ride Dominique. "If I cannot get Cassidy to relent," said Hildreth, "I shall probably ride Kummer on the colt, but have not yet definitely decided."

James Rowe, who trains the H. P. Whitney candidates for the Futurity, thinks he will start but two horses next Saturday in the historic race. "From what I know now," said Mr. Rowe, "I shall only send two horses to the post—Upset and John P. Grier. Ambrose will ride John P. Grier, but cannot yet tell who will be on Upset. Knapp is riding out of luck, and while he is the best rider one could wisharound a stable he does not seem to be in his best form. I guess his constant reducing has not helped him any, as he has to work hard to do 116 pounds.

"I naturally want to win the race, and it is only just to Mr. Whitney to get the best horseman possible to ride. It places me in a rather undesirable position, as I would like Knapp to ride, but what am I to do when I know and he knows, too, that he is not riding up to his best form. He may ride Upset, anyhow, as I have not yet made up my mind who I could get that would do better. I was looking over the probable starters today and there will be no more than six or seven candidates. But we never can tell. Men drop in their horses for a big stake at the last minute when least expected."

Max Hirsch will probably send On Watch to the post in the Futurity. He intended to have Donnacona carry the Loft colors, but he hurt himself a trifle in his last race, and the necessary let up has put him back in his work. The horse recovered completely, but will hardly be fit for such an event as the Futurity on Saturday. Kelsay will have the mount on On Watch.

The conditions of the race prescribe that if the stallion has not sired or the mare produced a winner prior to January 1, 1917, the produce will be allowed three pounds for either or five pounds for both. "Said allowance to be claimed at time of entry." Three pounds were duly claimed for Mahubah at the time of her entry. So Man o' War's weight is 127 pounds and Dominique's is 122.

JOCKEYS OF THE PAST AND PRESENT

It would perhaps be absurd to hint that the lads of the forties and fifties were more intelligent than those of the present time, but, all the same, few racing men of long experience will contradict that there is, and had been for some period before the war, a dearth of really good jockeys in England. The cause is not easy to discover, but it is a fact that many boys are spoilt by the pampering they receive as soon as they give promise of ability. Certain scribes are disposed to lavish praise upon them, with the result that the vanity of youth becomes aggressively conspicuous, and it would not be harmful if the strictness of old times was carried out by those to whom the lads are apprenticed.—Veteran in London Sporting Life.

DONCASTER ST. LEGER FALLS TO A FILLY

LONDON, England, September 10.—The St. Leger was run over the Town Moor track at Doncaster today for the first time since 1914, when it was won by Black Jester. In a good finish today's race was won by Lord Derby's brown filly Keysoe, by Swynford—Keystone, with Lord Glanely's bay colt Dominion, by Polymelus—Osyrua, second, and Major Waldorf Astor's bay colt Buchan, by Sunstar—Hamoaze, third. The race is for three-year-old colts and fillies at a mile and three-quarters and 132 yards, and was won in 1910 by Swynford himself. Keysoe's dam, Keystone, won the Epsom Oaks of 1906.

ROMANCE OF THE PANTHER'S BREEDING

Chance played a great part in the parentage of Amphion, sire of Sundridge, and touching on this in a recent issue of the Manchester Sporting Chronicle. Mankato had the following concerning how Countess Zia came to be mated with Tracery, the result being The Panther:

"Soon after Tracery went to the Southcourt Stud his owner, Mr. Belmont, intimated to Mr. Ashby that he would like to obtain from Colonel Hall Walker a subscription to White Eagle in exchange for one to Tracery. Mr. Ashby, accordingly, got into touch with his old friend Mr. Chismon, who discussed the proposal with Colonel Hall Walker, and suggested that Countess Zia should be sent to Southcourt.

"The Colonel was agreeable, and so in 1915, after foaling the filly Chanor to Count Schomberg, Countess Zia was mated with Tracery, and, heavy in foal, was included in the mares presented by Colonel Hall Walker to the nation. Her offspring, I need hardly add, is The Panther.

"To add to the romance of the episode, Mr. Chismon is inclined to think that Mr. Belmont has not yet sent a mare to fill his reciprocal nomination. If this be so, The Panther has the unique distinction for a classic winner of having cost nothing getting, and of having been given away when in the uterus of his dam. This year Countess Zia was again mated with Tracery.

MARYLAND RACING TODAY

Cudgel, Sir Barton, Sun Briar and Other Stars in Opening Day Feature.

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., September 10.—The autumn meeting of the Harford County Racing Association, which is scheduled to begin tomorrow, promises to be the greatest ever held at this course. There are stabled at the course a particularly fine band of horses and quality is much more noticeable than at any other former meeting at this track. The club has been extremely liberal in added money to the different stake events and the big purses have proven a strong magnet and has attracted the stars of the big eastern stables. The program offered on the opening day shows the smallest purse offering to be of the added value of $1.115 and the largest $5,000, which is added to the afternoon attraction, the Harford County Handicap, a dash of a mile and seventy yards, in which is carded a field of fourteen high-class horses. The J. K. L. Ross stable has three in this race—Cudgel, Sir Barton and Billy Kelly—and the W. S. Kilmer stable two, Sun Briar and Exterminator. At the weight adjustment it should furnish a splendid contest.

Track conditions here at present are not as good as in previous seasons. The track is deep in dust and a little rain would help matters materially. It migh be well for those figuring the chances of the horses to favor those which have shown a disposition to run in soft or heavy going.

Despite the change in ownership of the course, the management is practically the same is in previous seasons, Edward Burke being in charge, with Joseph McLennan acting as racing secretary.

James Milton will do the starting. C. J. Fitz Gerald will act as presiding steward, and C. Cornehlsen and Joseph McLennan will be the judges. The first race is scheduled at 2:30 and there will be the usual seven races offered every day.

The E. T. Zollicoffer horses have been turned over to W. T. McKinney, who succeeded A. Brent as trainer of the establishment.

Edward McBride has arranged to leave for Kentucky on Friday to look over seven yearlings for a gentleman who contemplates going into racing.

Al Austin, Owen Pons and B. E. Chapman are among the horsemen who shipped their strings from Kentucky to Havre de Grace.

S. A. Clopton, who has been ailing all summer, left this morning for Hot Springs, Ark., where he will remain until the opening of the New Orleans racing season. His horses are here in charge of E. G. Shaffer.

TRAINING GALLOPS AT LEXINGTON

LEXINGTON, Ky., September 10.—Thomas C. McDowell's Manager Waite, in preparation for the Lexington Cup Handicap of one and a half miles with $5,000 added, to be run next Wednesday, this morning worked one and a quarter miles in 2:14⅖ over the Kentucky Jockey Club's local track.

Other candidates for this same stake worked one and an eighth miles as follows:

J. T. Ireland's Dark Hill in 1:56.
W. C. Weant's Ellison in 1:59⅗.
C. E. Patterson's Drastic in 1:58⅗.
Frank J. Kelley's Brunette II. in 2:00.
Waldeck Stable's Moscowa in 2:01.

Drastic worked easily, Ellison and Moscowa were driven and the others were cantering at the end.

W. V. Traves' Minto II., also eligible to this race, worked a mile in 1:40, which was the fastest of the morning, the next best being Rookery's mile in 1:41⅖.

The best three-quarters was 1:13 by Jack Hare Jr., and the next best was 1:13⅘ by Apple Jack II. Viva America worked five-eighths in 1:00⅖, and Basil the same distance in 1:01.

Other moves at five-eighths were around 1:02 to 1:05. The fastest half mile observed by the watchers was 1:48⅗ by Subahdar and Miss Powell.

CARBINE'S TWO RACES A DAY RECORD

The great Australian race horse Carbine contested two races on the one day on five occasions, viz., the Victoria All-Aged Stakes and Loch Plate, and Australian All-Aged Stakes and Cumberland Stakes, as a three-year-old; the Victoria All-Aged Stakes and Loch Plate and the Australian All-Aged Stakes and Cumberland Stakes, as a four-year-old; and the Australian All-Aged Stakes and Cumberland Stakes as a five-year-old.

The only occasion on which he was defeated when he ran two races on the one day was when Marvel accounted for him in the Australian All-Aged Stakes, when Carbine was five years old. Melos finished twelve times in a place behind Carbine in the Victoria Derby (Carbine second, Melos third), Victoria Foal Stakes, Victoria Champion Stakes, Sydney Cup and Australian Plate, as a three-year-old; in the Melbourne Cup (Carbine second, Melos third), Victoria Essendon Stakes, Australian Autumn Stakes, Australian Cumberland Stakes and Australian Plate, as a four-year-old; Australian Spring Stakes and Melbourne Stakes, as a five-year-old.

MUTUEL BETTING IN THE ARGENTINE

Information supplied Mr. Edward Moorhouse, one of the directors of the English Bloodstock Breeders' Review, by M. Miguel Martinez de Hoz, president of the Argentine Jockey Club, relative to the working of the totalizator in the Argentine, contained a lot that was interesting. Tickets cost two Argentine dollars—about 84 cents in American money—each, and the turnover at the Palermo race course (Buenos Aires) last year was $21,065,570. The expense of working the machine was $104,055. Of the 10 per cent commission, half goes to the club, one-fourth to the city of Buenos Aires, and one-fourth to the government. Last year the government received $530,385, and of that sum $100,000 was placed at the disposal of a commission intrusted with the purchase of remounts for the army.

C. J. S., Chicago, Ill. W. F. Polson is a Buffalo man and white. He has within his orders, not necessarily contractual, two riders, R. Simpson, colored, and C. Howard, white.

J. B. C., New York, N. Y. In England, as a three-year-old in 1881, Mr. James R. Keene's great American race horse, Foxhall, ran in seven races. He was second to Bend Or, 4 years, for the City and Suburban, carrying 78 pounds to Bend Or's 126 pounds. Foxhall won the Cesarewitch and Cambridgeshire Handicaps. In the latter race Bend Or, 134 pounds, ran unplaced. Foxhall carried 126 pounds against him.

AUSTRALIAN SEASON ENDS

Antipodean Racing Had a Good Year Despite the War.

How Malua "Got On" to Win the Grand National Hurdle Race—General News Notes.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Australia, August 6.—The Australasian racing year ended last Thursday, July 31. It has, all in all, been a prosperous one, despite the war.

In this country we race all the year round, and the only difference that the change makes is that every race horse throughout Australasia has a year added to his age. The most important happening during the past season was, of course, the close of the war. That meant more to racing people in Europe than to those in Australia. The war hardly affected us in a racing sense. There was some cutting down of the number of race meetings and stakes shrank a little, but the sport was followed with as much zest as ever. We were able to procure some excellent specimens of the thoroughbred at absurdly low prices. Such an opportunity is never likely to occur again. Prices for horses went up by leaps and bounds in England as soon as hostilities ceased. The demand is far in excess of the supply. It will take some years for the position to right itself and until it does Australians who wish to obtain high-class English stock must be prepared to pay a high price.

The following good racing story is told by Arnold Ferry, who rode a bad horse, Speculation, in the 1888 Australian Grand National Hurdle race, won by a phenomenal stayer, Malua, which was owned and ridden by a fine horseman, J. O. Inglis. Ferry says: "I was introduced to Mr. Inglis as we were going to the post. I could not keep with the field at any part of the race, and thought I was running last; but just after leaving the straight the second time Malua, going a little more than half-pace (I was punching my horse for all I was worth), came up on the outside of me. Mr. Inglis said: 'Hello, having a hard ride, eh?' 'Yes,' I replied, 'I've no hope,' and we went together for about a furlong, when Mr. Inglis said: 'Well, I must get on, and I'll beat them yet,' and he did."

In the Victoria National Steeplechase course at Flemington, Melbourne, twenty-three jumps have to be negotiated. Some of the same jumps have, of course, to be cleared twice, the total in once round being fourteen, made up as follows:

No. 1—Fence three feet high, hedge four feet two inches high.
No. 2—Post and rail fence four feet eleven inches high.
No. 3—Post and rail fence four feet one inch high.
No. 4—Post and rail fence three feet eight inches high.
N. 5—Logs three feet eight inches high.
No. 6—Post and rail fence four feet high.
No. 7—Post and rail fence four feet high.
No. 8—Fence three feet high, hedge four feet high.
No. 9—Fence three feet high, hedge four feet high.
No. 10—Post and rail fence four feet one inch high.
No. 11—Post and rail fence four feet high.
No. 12—Paling fence four feet high.
No. 13—Stone wall three feet nine inches high.
No. 14—Logs three feet six inches high.

ALL THE STARTERS SUFFER MISHAPS.

In the October Steeplechase at Flemington in 1911 the whole of the ten starters made mistakes of some kind. At the second last fence Albert ran off and carried United Kingdom and Ricardo with him. The latter fell in trying to jump the wing and Don Q. also came down. United Kingdom then got over the fence, while Ricardo and Albert also finished. In the Warrnambool Grand Annual Steeplechase of 1909 each of the ten starters made a mistake and the places were eventually filled by Mossbank, Romana and Redlight, which finished in that order. They fell and were remounted.

George Scobie had a most unlucky day at the Flemington, Melbourne, course Aug. 2. He had three mounts, Rendrock, Lady Sunderland and Stagefright, and each fell. The last fall in the Trial Hurdle looked to be a very bad one, and Scobie was brought in in the ambulance. Relief was felt when it became known that he had escaped serious injury. Three falls in one afternoon's racing is rarely the lot of a jockey, but J. Chevalley had a similar experience at Williamstown some years ago.

Stakes at Flemington during the financial year just concluded amounted to $358,060, as against $354,560 in the preceding twelve months. The profits from the meetings, nevertheless, showed a total increase of nearly $10,000, although the previous season was also a good one and, in spite of the fact that owing to the influenza epidemic, the autumn quota decreased by $18,500.

It is somewhat remarkable that this season's champion three-year-old of Australia, Gloaming, and the early American premier, Sir Barton, should have been maidens until they reached that age. Gloaming, easily New Zealand and Australia's best, did not even race at two-years, while Sir Barton did, his first win being this year in the Kentucky Derby.

$400,000 FOR IMPROVEMENTS.

The amount the Auckland Racing Club purposes spending on improvements at Ellerslie is $400,000. The contemplated improvements will include a new grandstand in the outer inclosure, a new totalizator house, a large tea-kiosk and enlargement of the members' stand and members' dinning-room.

The Australian Jockey Club's money for the next meeting at Randwick totals $146,500. In several instances sweepstakes have been reduced by comparison with former occasions. Each jumping race carries $2,500, the Craven Plate and Spring Stakes $10,000 each and Randwick Plate $7,500.

The 1916 Sydney Cup winner, Prince Bardolph, which is eight years old, changed hands again last week in Melbourne. This time at $560, which, as he is a gelding, suggests that in due course he will find his way to the shafts of a cab of a greengrocer's cart.

There are thirty-five imported horses in the Caulfield Cup and thirty-six in the Melbourne Cup. The sire with most representatives in the last-mentioned race is Comedy King with seventeen. They are: Thaisa, Luteplayer, Air King, Travistock, Ballyshannon, Happy King, Percolator, Queen Comedy, Royal Comedy, Wedding Morn, Star Comedian, Clever Jim, Stage Girl, Kingbier, Biplane, Artilleryman and Stage Boy.

It is considered doubtful whether Queensland's crack distance horse, Venerable, will do any more racing. He went amiss while competing in the Albion Cup and has been sent home for a spell.

The well-performed New Zealand two-year-old Surveyor, which is to race in Australia in the spring, is reported as wintering really well. Surveyor is not in the Australian Jockey Club Derby, but is in the Victoria Derby.

During the past eight years the Australian Jockey Club has spent nearly $7,500,000 on permanent improvements at Randwick. The totalizator was the principal item in that expenditure, buildings and machines costing over $450,000.

Out of 270 races decided at the Melbourne registered meetings in the racing season just closed the absolute first fancy at barrier rise was successful on 115 occasions. The late racing year was one of the best experienced by backers for many seasons.

The Australian Jockey Club is advertising in the turf papers and general news dailies for a handicapper at a salary of $3,750.

Here is a new Victoria Racing Club rule which became operative August 1: "Every jockey or rider shall wear a skull cap of approved design and material, when riding in any race." The new regulation is generally commended.

Eighty-three jockeys have been licensed by the Australian Jockey Club for this season and seventy-eight apprentices have been granted permission to ride in races.

Josiah Prout, father of the English jockey, James Prout, who rode for Lord Derby in England, died at Flemington August 2.

For the next Victoria Racing Club's financial year, which corresponds with the 1920-21 racing season, the stakes to be run for at Flemington will be increased by $43,200. KANGAROO.

CORRECTION IN BELMONT PARK RACES

The time of race 43690 should read 1:06⅘ instead of 1:08⅘, and in 43694 the time was 58⅗ instead of 58⅕ as printed, the errors being due to a mistake in making up the chart at the track.

AQUEDUCT RACING BEGINS MONDAY

Fifteen Stake Races Included in Queens County Jockey Club Program—Order of Running.

NEW YORK, N. Y., September 10.—The autumn meeting of the Westchester Racing Association comes to an end Saturday and on Monday the racing scene will shift to the popular course of the Queens County Jockey Club at Aqueduct. Racing secretary Fred Rehberger has arranged an attractive program for the twelve days' meeting, fifteen stake races, all of the added money variety, being provided in addition to the regular overnight programs. For the opening day the Bay View Handicap of $2,500 added is the topliner and the Bellerose Selling Stakes of $1,500 added the secondary feature. The order of running of the various stake features is as follows:

Monday, September 15—Bellerose and Bay View Handicap.
Tuesday, September 16—Woodmere.
Wednesday, September 17—Arverne Handicap.
Thursday, September 18—Babylon Handicap.
Friday, September 19—Glen Cove.
Saturday, September 20.—Bushwick Steeplechase and Aqueduct Handicap.
Monday, September 22.—Beldame Handicap.
Tuesday, September 23—Roslyn Handicap.
Wednesday, September 24—Stonybrook.
Thursday, September 25—Oakdale Handicap.
Friday, September 26—Diablo Handicap.
Saturday, September 27—Queensboro Steeplechase and Edgemere Handicap.

MORALITY OF THE TURF.

haphazard criticism is not only unfair but also an absolute manifestation of ignorance.

A horse is not a machine. In temperament he is a good deal like the average human being. He may feel at his best today and win a race in impressive fashion and tomorrow, when contesting with much cheaper company, he may be beaten soundly, simply because he has trained off or feels a little out of sorts; or, again, the race may not have been run to suit him.

By the latter term I mean that some horses run better when rated along in front and when allowed to make their own pace. Others are slow beginners and do most of their running in the homestretch. They race better in the bunch and come from behind. Other horses are what we should call inhuman beings, temperamental. If jostled or bumped in the early stages they absolutely refuse to extend themselves. But if given clear sailing they will run a great race. Some horses run to form all the time; but they are exceptions.

TURF CRITICISM OFTEN ILL-CONSIDERED.

The term "in and outer" is often applied to horses that really do not deserve it. By that I mean racers that win today and lose tomorrow when pitted against the same class of horses. Critics should always take into consideration the circumstances surrounding the various contests—the weights, distance, ability of the rider and, above all, the various happenings during the race itself, because so many things can and do happen. They must really know the horses' dispositions and all the attendant incidents surrounding the race before they are in a position to criticize harshly.

I think that perhaps a good deal of the trouble in early days was due as much to incompetence of officials and irresponsible and ignorant critics as it was to actual happenings.

I have seen a board of high and mighty ones bullyragging a poor little boy who was little more than an infant in years, examining and cross-examining him until he couldn't tell the truth if he tried. And if they had had an ounce of sense, and if there had been anything culpable, they could have walked into the betting ring and put their hands on the man really responsible.

Half the trouble arose from the fact that they rarely got the right one. Sometimes it looked as if they didn't want to get him; because, even in the early days, most of the tracks had in their employ representatives of a very efficient detective service. I do not thing there is any question that they could have been supplied with all the information they wanted regarding the innermost workings of any stable had they so desired.

Of course I speak of isolated cases. As I have said before, I believe that ninety-nine per cent of the races are run absolutely on the level and that ninety-nine per cent of the officials want to do the right thing; because, if you come to figure it out, and unless one horse so far outclasses the others as to make a contest ridiculous, there is nothing sure about the outcome of a race, even if two or three owners of the supposedly best horses get together and agree to do a little dishonest work.

In the first place, when a horse goes to the post he is entirely in the hands of his jockey. You have to take a chance that the boy is going to "ride to orders." He may not want to do this; but, even if he does, he may not be able to do so. He may be told to wait behind another horse and so lose a race; but it may turn out that the horse "framed to win" may happen to have a bad day or something happens to his rider or he gets pocketed or cut off or left at the post. Then the best horse is absolutely forced to go on and win in spite of himself; and even then some outsider is liable to drop from the clouds and beat them both.

RACING "CHEATERS" SCARCE AND UNLUCKY.

The inside history of the turf as regards its darkest phases would be—if written—a succession of anecdotes about good things that have gone wrong. It is an old saying that the cheaters live on snowballs in wintertime. And I think this is absolutely true. Few men who ever indulged in questionable practices on the turf ever left enough to settle with the undertaker when they died.

So, if you want to have an object lesson that honesty is the best policy, just get some old-timer to tell you the story of the number of men who thought they were really smart—I mean in the way of stealing something—on the turf and ever get away with a nickel. When I said "smart" I should have used the term "cunning." A smart man is too wise to cheat.

If there is an investigation by the powers I think it is a mistake to clothe it with the mystery of a star-chamber proceeding. If any man is accused of wrongdoing or of comporting himself in any manner detrimental to the best interests of the turf, he should be acquainted with the substance of those charges and given a chance to defend himself.

The public support racing. The people have a right to know; and, likewise, if any man makes open accusations touching the methods or character of those connected with racing in any capacity, he should be called upon to substantiate those charges. It has often been urged that publication of certain matters regarding discipline is detrimental to the sport. I never thought so; open covenants openly arrived at would engender confidence in the public mind.

The press has done more for the turf than it ever got credit for, and the members of that profession should be made fully cognizant of the deliberations of the governing bodies. The idea of assuming an air of patronage toward them is ridiculous. Whenever you haven't got the newspapers with you—well, it's taps for the race track. It is a tribute to writers on turf topics as a class to state that their criticism or comment is almost invariably written in a spirit of fairness and good sportsmanshp.

HEALTH AND RECREATION ABOUT RACING.

You must excuse my telling you about the turf, and perhaps it was tiresome; but I guess I felt that I had to put the turf and its surroundings in its true light, or at least as I have seen it, before the readers of The Saturday Evening Post. I think I have done so. I hope I have. It was never misnamed the sport of kings. It os the healthiest recreation I know of and the best medicine to wear the ragged edges off one's nerves. If more of our rich men could only realize what a tonic it is there would be more race horse owners.

I say this in all seriousness. Half the ills of the world could be traced back to the fact that men and women are so self-contained, self-centered and completely eaten up by their own ego they wear themselves out before the appointed time. But if they were to purchase a few race horses, fuss with them occasionally and go out to the track on sunny afternoons, get right down to Mother Earth and yell their heads off, they would again become the human beings God made them; they would acquire a new lease of life—a more healthy slant on their fellow mortals and a keener appreciation of what a good old world it really is.

My master has always told me the feeling when we see our own racing colors come home in front is such that all the money in the world could not purchase it. Many of our greatest statesmen and prominent citizens in this country have been keen supporters of the race horse, and it is needless to say that the greatest minds in England and her colonial possessions have always maintained racing stables. This has been going on for hundreds of years and you will have to give them credit for knowing how to get the most out of life.

In His infinite wisdom the Lord created man, and He created also the racing horse. Can anyone say that He was dissatisfied with His handiwork?

WHITNEY'S TRIUMPHANT DAY

Takes the Nursery Handicap Stylishly with His Dr. Clark.

NEW YORK, N. Y., September 10.—A high-class program was decided at Belmont Park today. The Nursery Handicap, for two-year-olds, at three-quarters, fell to H. P. Whitney's Dr. Clark, which came from behind to win going away. It was worth $3,600 to the winner. The Coe entry, Cleopatra and Star Court, ruled favorite on the strength of the former's good showing in the Champagne Stakes, but she was outrun throughout the race today, winding up in second place, with Captain Alcock third.

Audacious repeated his recent good race to win the Pershing Handicap, which was at a mile for three-year-olds. Audacious showed great speed from the rise of the barrier, and after withstanding several challenges had plenty left at the end.

Twelve were withdrawn in the first race out of twenty-one named to start, Alvord proving the winner from Miss Kruter and Uncle's Lassie.

W. R. Coe's Stepson won the second, with the odds-on choice War Rocket third in a slowly run race.

Sundial II., an ascending favorite, won the third in easy fashion, with Goaler second.

The attendance was large despite the weather, which was threatening.

Jockey Nolan left for Havre de Grace today to ride A. H. Diaz' entry in the two-year-old stake there tomorrow, after which he will return to Belmont Park.

H. P. Whitney's John P. Grier made it a double for that owner today by taking the sixth race over the five and a half furlongs straightaway course. The Whitney colt appeared beaten midway of the stretch, but finished fast and gamely to win going away.

Wm. Claire has been made permanent superintendent of the Saratoga track.

R. E. Watkins, who has been in Kentucky for the past week, was an arrival today.

YOUNG STARS OF THE SARATOGA MEETING

Man o' War, Upset, Blazes and John P. Grier Discussed and Pedigreed in Detail by an Expert -- All Are Fine Colts -- Great Quality of the Champion

(By EXILE)

The best and most sporting meeting ever brought off in Saratoga is now but a memory, and what are the lessons to be learned therefrom?

First and foremost there is but one thing that really counts in horse racing and that is breeding; also that the true sporting spirit is stronger than ever before. The desire to win is paramount, be the stakes large or small. All are striving to win races where the best are found in keen competition. The owners of the east aspire to see their colors borne to victory in hard fought contests, in races where the weights are up, over a distance of ground and for such success the best of breeding is absolutely essential. Another thing to be learned from a summer's outing at the Spa is that horsemen, and horsewomen, too, for that matter, are at once keen judges of individual horse excellence, as well as of blood lines. The lesson is, of course, obvious. Nothing but the best will henceforward suffice. It is therefore the province of the breeders of bloodstock the country over to so improve their holdings that when their annual output is placed on the Saratoga market they will command the respect and admiration of the equine connoisseurs there assembled. The value and worth of breeding is not nearly so apparent in juvenile and sprint racing as in weight for age and distance events.

Unprecedented values were made by the yearling offerings at Saratoga, but for what unless demand, as doubtless it will be, is made for more weight for age and distance racing? Often in past years have I been told there is little in breeding, but judging from recent race course results, as well as the results of the yearling sales, it would appear that the time is coming, nay, is at hand, when the value of a pedigree will be even still better understood.

Great as the Saratoga meeting admittedly was, there can be no question of an overplus of two-year-old racing, to the neglect of races held over a distance of ground for the elders, such as a scale weight Saratoga St. Leger, in which the best of those, three years of age, can be brought together on even terms over the true St. Leger distance of one and three-quarters miles, to once and for all decide the now much vexed question of three-year-old supremacy. This is the end for which racing is primarily conducted.

Last year I inclined to the opinion that Saratoga had shown us no really good juvenile, the this year's winner of the Kentucky Derby not yet having found his racing feet. From what I have seen of the race course performances of others of the three-year-old division I cannot bring myself to believe there is a really first-clas colt among them. Purchase flattered, only to deceive. In the Cup neither Sir Barton nor Eternal was on view. The erratic Vindex is, I understand, hors de combat, and just how good is Thunderclap I am unable to guess, but he is an improving sort, sound and game, and I think an approved stayer. My last year's estimate of the capabilities of those then two years of age has worked out fairly well. May I, therefore, be permitted to go on record as saying that the form displayed by this year's crop of juveniles is infinitely superior to the form shown by the two-year-olds of a twelve month agone.

Perhaps a study of the blood lines of a few of the Saratoga racing stars may not prove uninteresting. Here is the pedigree of the best two-year-old—Man o' War—I have ever seen race in this country; perhaps the best colt it has been my fortune to ever see race.

No less than four times did Fair Play's best son face the starter during the Saratoga meeting. On three of these did he come forth triumphant. His only defeat was brought about for the most part by singularly injudicious riding on the part of his jockey, but the big chestnut quickly retrieved his lost laurels when he fairly smothered his erstwhile conqueror—Upset—in the running of the Grand Union and beat him again all ends up in the Hopeful.

A splendid big colt is Man o' War, close on to sixteen hands; in lineaments and coloring much like his sire, Fair Play. Not a bulky, thick set colt by any means, any amount of room for improvement from two to three, his long and elastic muscles, running well down into his hocks and knees, pronounced by critics a bit on the leg, but the best of the colts I have seen were fashioned on this order; just a bit of self will about him, a rare handful at the post as he lunges for the start, but once away he at once settles down to racing, sweeping aside all opposition in uncompromising style. Nothing can live the pace he sets as the homestretch is reached, that far-reaching, space-devouring stride of his, a marvel to behold.

Constantly and continually I hear it stated there is little in breeding. I, however, prefer to believe otherwise and for a number of years past have been a strong advocate of a proper blending of the three lines of Herod, Matchem and Eclipse and of the outcross plan of mating, and I win, that is all. Is not Man o' War's breeding pretty conclusive evidence of this? In the back row of Man o' War's pedigree there appear the initials H. M. and E., showing the lines from which his various ancestors are descended. It will at once be seen that he is of Matchem descent in the male line and that Rock Sand, sire of his dam, Mahubah, is Eclipse and that Herod blood is brought prominently into play by way of Lexington, Glencoe, Thormanby, Cain and by three shots of Sweetmeat, twice through the best brood mare sire there ever was, his son Macaroni.

FAIR PLAY AND HIS FINE MOTHER.

Ever have I been a friend of Fair Play, always anticipating his sending forth something of the class of Man o' War. Years ago, on the day his dam, Fairy Gold, arrived at Mr. Belmont's Nursery Stud, I made prediction of her unqualified success as a brood mare and see no reason to regret my temerity. Prior to the advent of Man o' War, Fair Play was the main connecting link between imported Australian and the present and this a Matchem line which lives practically only in the United States. Right here another prediction: in days to come turfmen and breeders, the world over, will seek the blood of Australian as best exemplified by his descendants, father and son, Fair Play and Man o' War.

Fairy Gold introduces into the pedigree the splendid Bend Or strain, so successful at all points of the sport, as sires, as race horses and as brood mares. This but the logical outcome of a blending of the Eclipse line of Stockwell and the famous Herod, brood mare blood, of the Derby winner Thormanby. The nervous and fretful Galliard, attained to much fame as a sire, after being sent to France, which was to be anticipated, for was he not by Galopin—Mavis, by Macaroni? Pauline, granddam of Fairy Gold, is by Hermit, and without the introduction of Hermit's name a modern pedigree is hardly complete. Next in order comes another dash of Matchem, by way of Brother to Strafford, grandson of Melbourne and Fair Play, the all-conquering Maid of Masham line, from which come such equine celebrities as Omar Khayyam, Sysonby, Friar Rock, Cyllene, Peter, Timothy, Winkfield's Pride, etc.

Mahubah, dam of Man o' War, is the daughter of the Triple Crown winner Rock Sand, whose daughters are proving themselves so phenomenally successful as brood mares. Since last I made up the winning brood mare sire list Rock Sand has moved up into second place, only just astern of the leader, Hanover, and Rock Sand, too, on account of his strains of Wenlock, St. Simon, King Tom and Hermit, is bred to attain success as a brood mare sire. Merry Token, which follows, is a daughter of the Derby winner Merry Hampton, son of Hampton, which you may remember, besides getting three winners of the Derby, also got Perdita, dam of Persimmon. Merry Hampton's dam is Doll Tearsheet, by Broomielaw, whose dam was Queen Mary, the immortal.

Mizpah, the next dam, is a daughter of the Two Thousand Guineas winner Macgregor, son of Macaroni, thus returning this most valuable Herod strain to the Macaroni of Mavis, dam of Galliard. Underhand, sire of the unnamed mare which produced Mizpah, is a member of the extreme outside family No. 43. Underhand himself is described as "small, carried his head high and could stay well under heavy weights, winning the Northumberland Plate twice and the Great Ebor Handicap." So runs the pedigree to The Slayer's Daughter, by Cain, also of the Herod persuasion and sire of Ion, whose name figures so prominently in the makeup of many famous horses, notably St. Simon, and which scored such a big success as a sire after his expatriation to France.

Man o' War is a member of the Bruce Lowe No. 4 family and goes back by way of Harriet, by Stripling, half sister to Bee in Bonnet, Lunacy and Lunatic, to which latter trace such famous horses as Prestige, Kisber, Wenlock, Willonyx and Apology. From the Harriet by Stripling branch nothing, so far as I am aware, of superlative excellence has come, but the family is only an exceedingly small one. I don't suppose there are more than three or four mares to be found tracing to Mizpah in all the English Stud Book. Mizpah herself, as perhaps you know, is the dam of Tanzmeister, sire of Cherryola, dam of Purchase.

What of Man o' War's prospects of developing into a sire of note? Despite the fact that no truly great sire has come to light from this particular line, I should have no hesitancy in giving the most recent winner of the Hopeful every chance. For one thing, his conformation suggests success in this particular. The frame is there on which to build. You won't know him when he spreads and here the blood of Australian and Brother to Strafford for the house of Matchem, in addition to strains of Herod, via Lexington, Glencoe, Thormanby, Macaroni (twice), backed by the best of Eclipse strains, through Bend Or, Galliard, Hermit (twice), Springfield, St. Simon and Hampton. Indeed, the coming of Man o' War is most fortunate, for now there is but scant chance of this Australian-Matchem line being swept aside.

Man o' War, despite his one defeat, stands out by himself, no matter the result of the running of the Futurity, as the one best colt seen, in many a long day, in this country. Colts that would be considered phenomenal in other years are put quite in the shade by the superlative excellence of the chestnut son of Fair Play—Mahubah. To Upset, however, belongs the credit of once having lowered the colors floating from the masthead of the equine Man o' War. Upset's victory was achieved in the running of the Sanford Memorial and, when in receipt of fifteen pounds, had a long neck's advantage at the finish, but in the running of the Grand Union he could make no sort of impression on the champion and was beaten out of a place when he essayed to stem the tide of the avalanche in the running of the Hopeful.

WHISK BROOM II.'S STERLING SON UPSET.

A sturdy, full-made colt with his full share of temper is Upset, three white legs, the off fore almost to the knee, never a star and a big advertisement for his young and coming sire, Whisk Broom II., which is now but twelve years of age, and which, after meeting with more than ordinary success when racing in England, so electrified turf devotees upon his return by carrying off all three of the major eastern handicaps and has the distinction of running his mile and a quarter in two minutes. Whisk Broom II. gives every promise of attaining to great eminence as a sire and is already this season out with four winning two-year-olds in Upset, Leviathan, Red Red Rose and John P. Grier. Whisk Broom II. is, of course, of Bonnie Scotland descent. It was Walter Hopkins, at Saratoga, who first called my attention to the fact that three generations of the Bonnie Scotland line are this season sires of winning two-year-olds. They are Ben Brush, his sons Broomstick, Sweep, Theo. Cook and Von Tromp, and grandsons Whisk Broom II., Buckhorn, Meridian and Sweeper II. Truly a remarkable record, one showing how well adapted are the members of the Bonnie Scotland line to the racing requirements of this country. Happy then the man who is possessed of an entire son of this great winner getting line.

Upset's sire is, of course, by Broomstick, dam the Oaks mare Audience, a daughter of Sir Dixon and that fine race mare Sallie McClelland, by Hindoo. Whisk Broom II. is a member of the famous producing line of Maggie B. B. Not so long ago I saw this Maggie B. B. family referred to as an American family. Of course it is not, for Maggie B. B.'s ancestress, Myrtle, was imported from England by Messrs. H. and J. Kirkman of Nashville, Tenn., in 1836. Great as has been the success of this family as a winner producing line, to date only one really first-class sire, Sir Dixon, has come to light, but as a winner producing line it is unsurpassed, possibly on account of the Herod and Matchem strains, introduced by way of Hindoo, Boston, Glencoe, Mameluke and Bobadil, backed by the Matchem leaven of Australian and Sorcerer. If anything, the pedigree of Whisk Broom II. shows a certain deficiency in the blood of Matchem, and if this be supplied, now that he has shown ability to transmit much of his wondrous flight of speed, his success as a sire will be increasing and assured.

Upset's dam, Pankhurst, is a daughter of the ill-tempered when in training though fleet Voter, which is doing so well just now as a brood mare sire. This was to be expected, for he is a grandson of that famous brood mare sire Hermit and his dam, Mavourneen, by the Matchem sire, Barcaldine, which sired the dams of Sain, of the Grand Prix and French Derby winner Perth, of that good French race horse and sire Macdonald and the Australian champion, Malster. Did I say required the blood of Matchem close up in his mates? Well, here it is in Voter's dam, Mavourneen. Runaway Girl, herself a good winner and producer, is a daughter of the largest money earner of the American turf, Domino, and the great granddam Fair Vision, dam of Peter Quince and Trance and sister to those exceptionally fast horses Necromancer and Juggler. This is the Forget Me Not branch of the No. 9 Old Vintner mare family. No really great horses in recent years, bar Dark Ronald, are to be found straining to Forget Me Not, yet hosts of winners come, the soil is fertile but not lavish in the production of the best.

Another son of Whisk Broom II., John P. Grier, impressed me, and which, when he learns better the busines of racing, is, I think, a colt the equal of any shown by trainer James Rowe this year.

Only once did John P. Grier face the starter at Saratoga, but it must have pleased his trainer, for he was sent out a warm favorite in a field of twelve, but the best he could do was, after running green, to finish second. The colt did not seem to at all realize what was expected of him, for, after leaving the barrier and for a space running forwardly, he suddenly dropped out of it, only to come on again like lightning in the stretch and at the end was rapidly overhauling Peace Pennant, the leader. On journeying to Belmont the son of Whisk Broom was again made favorite and this time landed the spoils, though only after he had again shown that his racing education was still far from complete.

John P. Grier's dam is a nine-year-old daughter of the handsome Disguise, which is no particular success as the sire of race horses. His daughters, however, on account of their speed and Himyar, Galopin, Young Melbourne and Queen Mary infusions, should prove of great use as brood mares. Wonder is a half sister to the Futurity winner Novelty; in fact, this is the Futurity family of Maskette, Sweep, Novelty and Pennant. Curiosity is by Voter, whose daughters as the dams of Novelty, Campfire, Flags, Upset, Kilkenny, Panoply, etc., are now so rapidly taking high rank as brood mares, and the next dam is Pink Domino, by Domino. Does the double dash of the blood of Domino in this instance, too, indicate inability to stay and is this the only weak point in the makeup of John P. Grier?

Honesty of purpose and a willingness to give the best that is in him are the outstanding characteristics of the hard, flinty, medium-size, fit, brown son of Wrack and Blazing Star, Blazes. On his first appearance in Saratoga Blazes was beaten, though coming like a steam engine at the finish, by Evergay and Masked Dancer. On the following Wednesday he was racing once more, this time against only a moderate lot of youngsters, the bookmakers considerately laying the seductive price of 2 to 1 against his winning chance. Blazes, of course, won, fairly squandering his opponents by a good fifteen lengths. On August 12 Blazes flew at higher game, but continued his winning career, beating Sandy Beal and Grayssian over the five and one-half furlongs course with all ease by four lengths. Next came his Grab Bag Handicap victory over Cleopatra, since runner-up to Man o' War for the Hopeful and winner of the Belmont Champagne.

In the running of the Grand Union Blazes essayed the hopeless task of defeating the champion Man o' War, by which he was relegated into third place, being also astern of Upset. It was not, however, due to any lack of determination that caused the downfall of Blazes, for he is a good, dependable colt and his non-success in this instance was due entirely to the superior class of those which finished ahead of him.

Wrack, sire of Blazes, was in his home land the handy man of the race course, not of the top class, but good at all points of the sport; could run both fast and far and also well negotiate obstacles. Not a large horse is Wrack, but a sound and true made one, by the City and Suburban and Duke of York Stakes winner Robert le Diable, son of Ayrshire and Rosebay, by Melton. Wrack is a member of the Ellen Horne branch of the No. 1 family, from which come such as the One Thousand Guineas winner Chelandry, dam of Neil Gow (Two Thousand Guineas) and Traquair, Lord Lyon, Bend Or, Ladas, Flair and Prince Palatine. Blazing Star is a fourteen-year-old daughter of Star Shoot, whose daughters are, as the dams of Star Jasmine, Thunderclap, The Finn, etc., achieving such notable success as brood mares.

Alarm Belle, the granddam, is by the Matchem horse Spendthrift, from Uncle's dam, The Niece, by Alarm, all good brood mare blood this, and it is the No. 4 Layton Barb mare family.

Wrack with his six winning two-year-olds—Blue Wrack, Hat Rack, Who Cares, Bullseye and Blazes—three of them from daughters of Star Shoot, is making a famous start as a sire, and if a little intelligence is used in his mating may soon go higher still. Wrack, it may be observed from a glance at the back row of his pedigree, is somewhat deficient in Herod and Matchem blood, especially the latter. Of course there is nothing in the blending of the blood plan of mating, but how comes it that the best of the Wracks to date, Blazes, shows an abundant close up supply of Matchem strains in his pedigree brought by the way of Stella, granddam of Star Shoot, Spendthrift, sire of Alarm Belle and Australian, again through Maggie B. B.? Wrack is just the sort of horse which would have scored a huge success off those big, angular daughters of Darebin—it is too late now for this—but others of a like breeding can be found, and if this be done nothing is more unlikely than that Wrack will soon advance himself to the head of the poll and be sending out horses capable of running any distance from five-eighths to five miles and every quarter in twenty-three seconds.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

It turns out that Stefan the Great wrenched his fetlock in the course of the English Two Thousand Guineas race, which explains his poor running. Up to that time his owner was hopeful of winning the Derby with the gray, which was not, however, able to start in the event.

For some years there has been a champion Cheshire cheese for each owner of the placed horses in the English Chester Cup, but the food controller, in reply to a request for the custom to be followed this year, declined, on the ground of the shortage and adding that "all cheese was required for those engaged in heavy work."

The Spanish Derby, run for at the Madrid course of Aranjuez, was won by King Alfonso's Montmirael, a French colt by Bonspiel. At the same meeting the king won another race by the aid of Menthe, a daughter of the famous Rose de Mai. Altogether the royal colors were successful in eight races in the first months of the racing season in Spain.

Went to post at 4:01. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. DR. CLARK, after being saved under slight restraint in the early running, moved up rapidly and, taking the lead at the eighth post, outstayed CLEOPATRA in the final drive. The latter bolted out at the start, but closed a big gap in the early running and finished gamely under punishment. CAPTAIN ALCOCK met with repeated interference in the stretch and closed up with a rush when clear and easily passed WEDDING CAKE. WEDDING CAKE showed the most early speed and raced STAR COURT into defeat, but quit in the final eighth. STAR COURT raced into the lead, but also quit. KINNOUL ran poorly.

Went to post at 4:29. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won handily; second and third driving. AUDACIOUS raced into the lead on the backstretch and, keeping it, easily won under mild restraint. QUESTIONNAIRE began slowly, but gradually improved his position on the outside of the leaders and finished gamely, but could not overtake the leader. BLAIRGOWRIE began poorly, but, saving ground on all the turns, closed a big gap and outstayed TICKLISH at the end. The latter followed the leader closely in the early running and tired. LAD'S LOVE set the early pace, but quit after going well for a half. OSGOOD ran poorly.

Went to post at 4:58. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. JOHN P. GRIER began somewhat slowly and swerved badly in the early running, but moved up rapidly when straightened out in the stretch and wore the leaders down, then took the lead at his rider's leisure and won easing up. PADRIAC displayed excellent early speed and, taking the lead, raced GERMA into defeat. GERMA set a fast early pace, but quit in the last eighth. FAIR GAIN finished gamely. DUNSANDEL, a good looker, showed speed for three-eighths and was eased up when beaten.

G. J. LONG'S FINE BAND OF YEARLINGS

LOUISVILLE, Ky., September 10.—If George J. Long has anything like decent luck with his large bandof yearlings next winter he should be unusually well represented in the two-year-old stakes in Kentucky and Saratoga next spring and summer. He has nineteen youngsters at Churchill Downs, they having been left behind in charge of Tom Ahern, when trainer Pete Coyne took the remainder of the stable, consisting of eight horses ready for racing, to Lexington. Freecutter and Clermont were also left here, and they will both be fired and turned out for the winter. There are eleven colts and eight fillies in the yearling band of the Long establishment and they are all good-looking thoroughbreds. Eleven of the youngsters, six colts and five fillies, are the progeny of Sain, which is now standing at Bashford Manor Farm, just outside this city. The list of Long yearlings follows:

Chestnut colt, by Alvescot—Belle Scott.
Chestnut colt by Free Lance—Viaora.
Bay colt, by Jim Gaffney—Ameeras (half-brother to Dundreary).
Bay colt, by Free Lance—Mytilene (brother to Quito).
Brown colt, by Sain—Rezial (half-brother to Celesta and Clermont).
Black colt, by Sain—Bonnie Kate (half-brother to Cacambo).
Black colt, by Sain—Hermosa.
Bay colt, by Sain—Azucena.
Chestnut colt, by Free Lance—Watoma (half-brother to Rudolfo).
Bay colt, by Sain—Hymeria.
Bay colt, by Sain—Binda.
Chestnut filly, by Free Lance—Cutter (sister to Freecutter).
Bay filly, by Sir Huon—Hortense.
Bay or brown filly, by Sain—Boema (half-sister to Kathleen).
Bay filly, by Ralph—Thaka.
Bay filly, by Sain—Altuda (half-sister to Kalinka).
Bay filly, by Sain—Latita.
Bay filly, by Sain—Semprite.

Trainer Coyne is enthusiastic over the outlook for his having a high-class band of two-year-olds next year to race and he is especially sweet on the Sain colts and fillies. The majority of the "babies" are already well broken and are being sent along a sixteenth or an eighth of a mile at an easy gait.

No one takes more interest in young race horses than does Mr. Long, and he is a daily visitor at Churchill Downs despite the fact that he was left in an enfeebled condition from an attack of illness awhile back. He remains the greater part of the forenoons watching the yearlings go through their paces and each one comes in for a critical inspection from him. Breeding thoroughbreds is his chief delight, as he gets considerable pleasure in watching them grow from sucklings into horses to prove worthy representatives to carry his colors. He has often made the statement that he is of the opinon that the race track saved his life when he was stricken, as he attributes his ability to stand off an attack of paralysis to his rugged constitution, made so by the many hours he has spent outdoors at various race tracks.

At the close of the Churchill Downs meeting trainer Coyne will go into winter quarters with his horses at that track. A special paddock has been built just to the right of the Long stable, where Freecutter and Clermont are now turned out.

Trainer Jack McCormack has sent the large band of racers which he is training for Jefferson Livingston to Lexington. The Livingston horses have been summering at Douglas Park and all seem to have benefited by their rest, judging from their work in the mornings.

Charley Ellison is here on a visit. He will remain until just before the Latonia meeting opens, as he seldom goes to Lexington. He spent the warm months at his summer place in Wisconsin fishing and hunting, and is fresh for a strenuous autumn campaign with the thoroughbreds in Kentucky.

Milo Shields will not send his horses to Lexington, but instead will ship directly to Latonia on September 17. In addition to Lucky B., winner of the New Year's Handicap at New Orleans last winter, he also has Jim Heffering and Korbly. He recently acquired the latter from George Barnes. The Shields horses summered well and Korbly will be ready for racing again this fall after a long letup due to an injured leg.

OPENING HAVRE DE GRACE, MD.

THURSDAY Sept. 11th a colt
FRIDAY Sept. 12th a filly
SATURDAY Sept. 13th a filly

Each one is a two-year-old and all have won brackets.

All show a decided liking for the present condition of the track with its new top dressing, which a lot of horses which won here last year will not be able to negotiate. This is going to be a hard meeting for the form players.

YOU MUST BE WELL ADVISED.

THE ABOVE THREE DAYS' INFORMATION WILL BE WIRED IMMEDIATELY UPON RECEIPT OF SUBSCRIPTION.
